

Jayar Car Parts completes Poole branch move – open for business today

7 September 2026 (Maidstone, Kent) – Today, Jayar Car Parts is pleased to announce that its Poole branch has completed its relocation and is open for business.

Located on Fleetsbridge Business Centre – 0.7 miles from the previous site on Albany Park – the new 5,000m<sup>2</sup> site is double the size of the old building. As a result, Jayar has been able to increase the amount of stock available and because of its modernisation, staff will be able to pick quicker and more efficiently. As a result, the family-run motor factor is confident garages in the area will receive an even better service.

Jayar Car Parts General Manager, Tom Curtis, said: “Poole is an incredibly popular branch, and it became clear that we needed to upsize to ensure we continue to meet the demand of garages in the area.

“The new site provides us with exactly what we need – size, location and accessibility – so I am confident this move will see Jayar Poole go from strength-to-strength.”

Jayar Poole is managed by Darren Francis, who is in charge of a team of 20. They will be hosting a trade evening at the new site on 24 September. Open to garages in the local area, a relaxed evening to network with suppliers, fellow garages and Jayar staff awaits. Furthermore, there will be ample chances to win prizes and enjoy delicious food.

Garages in the Dorset area can contact Darren or their local Jayar branch to secure their free ticket.
